STIPULATION

The United States, by and through its undersigned counsel, and the defendant, by and through his counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

1. By prior order, this matter was set for Preliminary Hearing on June 30, 2025.
2. By this Stipulation, the parties now move to continue the Preliminary Hearing until July 11, 2025, at 2:00 p.m.
3. The defendant made his initial appearance on June 16, 2025.
4. The defendant is presently detained pending trial in this matter.

5. The United States is providing 60 pages of reports related to the criminal investigation of the defendant. Counsel for the defendant needs time to review the reports, conduct defense investigation, and consult with the defendant.
6. Additionally, the parties have discussed potential pre-indictment resolution of this matter. The parties need further time to discuss this matter, discuss any potential consequences, and to allow counsel for the defendant reasonable time necessary for preparation and further investigation.
7. The defendant understands that pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(b), “any information or indictment charging an individual with the commission of an offense shall be filed within thirty days from the date on which such individual was arrested.” Time may be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act if the Court finds that the ends of justice served by granting such a continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). The parties jointly move to exclude time within which any indictment or information shall be filed from the date of this order, through and including July 11, 2025, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv), because failure to do so would “deny counsel for the defendant . . . the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.”
8. Good cause exists under Rule 5.1(d) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
